DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed on July 20, 2004, which has been fully considered in this action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1- 4 and 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by GB 2275871.

GB 2275871 shows a fire suppression system comprising all the featured elements of the instant invention. As to “for use with a lavatory of an aircraft” and “for suppressing a fire within a waste container”, such statements of intended use carry no patentable weight.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB 2275871.

Art Unit: 3752

GB 2275871 shows all the featured elements of the instant invention except for the valve being integrally formed with the nozzle and being closed by a material having a low melting point. Such nozzles are well known in the fire protection art and could easily be provided in the apparatus of GB 2275871, such as in pre-action sprinkler systems.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 9 and 11-21 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed July 20, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's arguments that GB 2275871 does not disclose whatsoever a system for providing a signal to an individual that fire extinguishing medium is being transferred through a reservoir to a supply line to a nozzle, note that with respect to applicant's statements of intended use, i.e. (for providing a signal), the system of GB 2275871 is capable of performing applicant's intended use, therefore, the claims are fully anticipated.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3752

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
